

DEAC MEETING

District Evaluation Advisory Committee (DEAC)

September 28, 2023
Asbury Park School District

Who is in the room?

Goals

- Develop a committee for 2023-2024 School Year
- Come to a common understanding about the work of the DEAC
- Identify topics for this school year
- Share calendar of meetings

Norms for Committee Meeting

- Be fully present
- Be focused on positive results
- Be an active listener
- Be supportive and open to new ideas from the members
- Be a problem solver
- Ask questions that help us build capacity as a district

What is DEAC?

A committee of diverse stakeholders used to advise districts on the implementation of AchieveNJ.

Recommendations

- Coordinate efforts to plan and implement educator evaluation
- Maintain open lines of communication and provide a consistent message about evaluation throughout the district
- Provide an integrated vision connecting multiple initiatives that districts are implementing; and
- Provide a coherent professional development plan for the district based on the evaluation data.

Who is DEAC?

- ❑ the Superintendent
- ❑ a special education administrator
- ❑ a parent
- ❑ a member of the district board of education
- ❑ one or more central office administrators overseeing the teacher evaluation process
- ❑ one or more administrators conducting evaluations
- ❑ representatives of teachers from each school level in the district

Note: Districts should consider expanding the minimum requirement.

Why are you here?

Possible Agenda Items

- Discuss procedures in place to complete evaluation process throughout the district.
- Analyze aggregated SGO scores distributions and SGO quality.
- Analyze aggregate teacher practice scores
- Discuss FAQs

In groups of 5-6 come up
